Description
I am in the process of cleaning up formatting, typographical, and editorial issues with the help info for the tools that have entries in Appendix D. Most of these will be very trivial changes, but will (I think) improve the quality of the documentation and give it a cleaner presentation. Hopefully I will push this all in one big commit, but if I miss anything, minor changes will probably be necessary later.

Revision e5b71c34 - 01/19/2011 07:45 PM - Justin Lemkul
Fixes to g_wham documentation.
Mostly formatting issues in the source code, making it (hopefully) a bit easier to read and keep track of. The help info ate up a lot of space in the manual, so the changes I made should make it a bit more compact.

History
#1 - 01/19/2011 05:06 PM - Justin Lemkul
- Status changed from New to In Progress

#2 - 01/20/2011 05:20 PM - Justin Lemkul
- % Done changed from 0 to 50

#3 - 01/21/2011 09:05 PM - Justin Lemkul
- Status changed from In Progress to Closed

I think this is about done. There are some minor inconsistencies that might be addressed to finally make everything all nice and pretty (consistency in formatting of file extensions, i.e. [TT].pdb[tt] vs pdb), but I've got the main stuff.

#4 - 01/21/2011 09:05 PM - Justin Lemkul
- % Done changed from 50 to 100

#5 - 05/23/2014 02:02 PM - Rossen Apostolov
- Project changed from Documentation to GROMACS
- Category set to documentation

the issue was moved to project "Gromacs", category "documentation", and the original sub-project "Documentation" was removed.
